

C

Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Second Department,
New York.

COPELCO CAPITAL, INC., respondent,
v.

CELLULARVISION OF NEW YORK, L.P., et al.,
appellants, et al., defendant.

Nov. 13, 2000.

In an action to recover damages under the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC), the Supreme Court, Nassau County, O'Connell, J., entered summary judgment for the plaintiff, and defendants appealed. The Supreme Court, Appellate Division, held that plaintiff made out a prima facie case for summary judgment, and defendants failed to raise a triable issue of fact.

Affirmed.

MEMORANDUM BY THE COURT.

*274 In an action, inter alia, to recover damages under Uniform Commercial Code article 2-A, the defendants Speed USNY.Com L.P., f/k/a CellularVision of New York, L.P., and CellularVision Capital Corporation, f/k/a Hye Crest Management, Inc., CellularVision of New York, L.P., appeal from a judgment of the Supreme Court, Nassau County (O'Connell, J.), entered June 29, 1999, which, upon an order of the same court entered June 11, 1999, inter alia, granting the plaintiff's motion for summary judgment against them on the first, fourth, and sixth causes of action, is in favor of the plaintiff and against them in the principal sum of $135,883.41.

ORDERED that the judgment is affirmed, with costs.

A party moving for summary judgment must make a prima *275 facie showing of entitlement to judgment as a matter of law, offering sufficient evidence to demonstrate the absence of any material issue of fact (see, Alvarez v. Prospect Hosp., 68 N.Y.2d 320, 508 N.Y.S.2d 923, 501 N.E.2d 572; Zuckerman v. City of New York, 49 N.Y.2d 557, 427 N.Y.S.2d 595, 404 N.E.2d 718). Here, the plaintiff demonstrated the absence of any material issue of fact with respect to its claim under the Uniform Commercial Code. Therefore, the motion was sufficient to make out a prima facie case for summary judgment (see, Winegrad v. New York Univ. Med. Center, 64 N.Y.2d 851, 487 N.Y.S.2d 316, 476 N.E.2d 642; Zuckerman v. City of New York, supra). In opposition, the appellants failed to raise a triable issue of fact.

**96 The appellants' remaining contentions are unpreserved for appellate review or without merit.
